

IBERIABANK Corporation Closes $15 Million Trust Preferred Securities Offering

PRNewswire-FirstCall
LAFAYETTE, La.

IBERIABANK Corporation, the holding company of IBERIABANK (<http://www.iberiabank.com/>), announced today that the Company has raised $15 million through a trust preferred securities offering which closed on October 31, 2006. The trust preferred securities were issued by a newly established subsidiary of the Company, IBERIABANK Statutory Trust IV, a Delaware statutory business trust. The trust preferred securities are expected to qualify as Tier I capital for regulatory purposes and will bear an interest rate equal to three-month LIBOR plus a specified percentage. The securities are redeemable by IBERIABANK Corporation in whole or in part after five years, or earlier under certain circumstances. The Company intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from its trust preferred securities offering to provide funding for its pending acquisition of Pulaski Investment Corporation.

Daryl G. Byrd, President and Chief Executive Officer of IBERIABANK Corporation stated, "The trust preferred securities we issued today provide an excellent source of capital for our growing company," continued Mr. Byrd. "We believe the favorable treatment of the trust preferred securities as regulatory capital further enhances the strength of our Company."

IBERIABANK Corporation is the second largest Louisiana-based bank holding company. At September 30, 2006, the Company reported total assets of $3.1 billion, total deposits of $2.4 billion and shareholders equity of $280 million. The bank operates banking offices in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Shreveport, Northeast Louisiana, LaPlace, Houma, and the Acadiana and Northshore regions of Louisiana.
