

IBERIABANK Announces Community Plan With NCRC

LAFAYETTE, La., Nov. 1, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- IBERIABANK (www.iberiabank.com), the 130-year-old subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation (NASDAQ: IBKC), announced today a community benefits plan with the National Community Reinvestment Coalition (NCRC) and its community-based members and partners across the southeastern region of the United States. The plan covers a five-year period (2018-2022) and includes specific objectives related to community development lending and investments, small business and mortgage lending, philanthropy, and branches.

"We've enjoyed a long-standing relationship with John Taylor and his community partners," said Daryl G. Byrd, President and CEO of IBERIABANK Corporation. "With our continued growth, a written plan helps provide a clearer understanding of our commitment to continue to invest in and care for low and moderate income communities within our service areas. We have always been and continue to be dedicated to improving our communities through strategic partnerships which promote financial literacy, affordable housing, small business development, and neighborhood revitalization."

"We very much appreciate the strong collaboration Daryl and his team have demonstrated," said NCRC President and CEO John Taylor. "IBERIABANK has been actively engaged in meaningful conversations with our members to ensure that they are well positioned to meet the needs of underserved communities."
